Cutbacks to Be Resisted Strongly

By JOHN M. PEARCE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration has fresh evidence inflation is abating, but one of the President's keys to fiscal health—$2 billion in federal spending cuts—is just beginning to wend its uncertain way through Congress.

President Nixon asked Congress Thursday to trim or abolish 57 government programs from school milk subsidies to the board of tea tasters.

He conceded many of the programs, several dear to the hearts of congressmen, are strongly resisted. But the cuts appear necessary for a 1971 fiscal budget surplus, an important segment of the administration's anti-inflation game plan.

While Nixon was outlining his economy program, the Labor Department reported the rise in wholesale prices tapered off this month, while the Commerce Department said its monthly index of leading indicators—designed to foreshadow broad economic trends—declined 1.8 per cent in January, its steepest drop since 1957.

Wholesale prices rose at an annual rate of 3.6 per cent, the preliminary February figures showed. This is less than half the January rate and may be an indication consumer prices will begin to respond to the administration's anti-inflation program before too long.

The monthly increase was three-tenths of one per cent, despite an unseasonably high one per cent jump in the price of farm products which raised them 8.2 per cent over the levels of a year earlier. Most of the increase was in cattle, hogs and fresh fruits.

Administration economists now predict the price spiral will slow substantially by the end of the year, although they have several times pushed back their deadlines.

The cuts Nixon needs for his predicted $1.3 billion surplus would affect several long-entrenched programs, including aid to school districts where federal employees' children are edu-fer action on Mrs. Green's resolution and expressed the hope the Education and Labor Committee would carry out the investigation she sought. The vote probably killed Mrs. Green's resolution, at least for this year, but the issue raised by it is far from settled. She had 114 co-sponsors and she is known to be a determined battler.

A former schoolteacher and an early champion of civil rights legislation, Mrs. Green is now convinced the schools should not be asked to bear the burden of righting the racial wrongs that have afflicted the United States for centuries. She is suffering under the burden of forced desegregation, she feels, and it was this problem she wanted a special committee to look.

The Education and Labor Committee, dominated by Northern liberals committed to the present course of action, is unlikely to take such a look.

The issue was never really faced by the Rules Committee or by her opponents. They made her the center of their counter-attack and in a last effort to save her resolution she vowed she would not even serve on the special committee she sought to create.

In districts near military bases this "impacted area aid" can be a substantial portion of each year's budget. Nixon plans to save $392 million a year by reducing it and shifting much of it from relatively wealthy communities to poorer districts.

In addition, school milk subsidies costing $84 million a year would be scrapped and the money "reallocated to more effective nutritional programs to benefit children of poor families."

Other proposals include an end to hospital construction grants in favor of mortgage guarantees, scrapping of the U.S. Savings Stamp program and eliminating the 73-year-old board of federal tea tasters.

Jordanians Suspected in Swiss Crash

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — Two Jordanians wanted for the bombing of an Austrian airliner last Saturday also are suspected of being involved in the fatal crash of the Swiss airliner bound for Israel the same day, Swiss police said today.

The police said they had received a West German warrant for the arrest of Kaddoumi or Quaddoumi Sufian and Mussa Badawi Jawhar, both of Amman.

West German authorities advised Federal Attorney Hans Walder the two men were believed to have crossed from Germany into Switzerland in a cream-colored automobile with German license plates.

The Austrian plane, a Caravelle jet, landed at Frankfurt after a bomb exploded in its baggage hold and tore a hole in the hull. All aboard got off safely.

The Swissair jetliner crashed shortly after it took off from Zurich, killing all 47 persons aboard. Radio messages from the pilot indicated there had been an explosion in the baggage compartment, and although the investigation has not been completed, Swiss authorities said there is a strong suspicion of sabotage. Arab terrorists generally are blamed.

Walder told a news conference German authorities advised his office the two suspects were believed to have bought an altimeter and a transistor radio in Germany to fabricate the bomb that exploded in a mail-bag in the Austrian plane. The bomb was in a parcel mailed to Jerusalem from a German post office by two men.

Walder said the German authorities also advised that there were other sales of similar equipment in Germany at the same time under suspect circumstances.

"The fact that the still not fully explained explosion in the Swissair plane and that in the Austrian aircraft took place the same day very probably is not just a coincidence," he added.

Court Turns Down Appeal of Klansmen

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court turned down today appeals by seven Mississippi Ku Klux Klan members sentenced to prison in the 1964 murder of three civil rights workers.

The seven include onetime Imperial Klansman Sam H. Bowers Jr. They had been convicted of "conspiring to injure, threaten, oppress and intimidate" the three slain men—Michael Schwerner, Andrew Goodman and James Earl Chaney.

They claimed, on appeal, their rights were violated by the reading of an alleged confession of Horace Doyle Barnett, one of the seven, and by the trial judge's instruction to the jurors to try to reconcile their deliberation differences.

The court unanimously rejected the appeal without any comment.

Beside Bowers, a 45-year-old Laurel, Miss., vending machine operator, the convicted men are: Cecil Ray Price, 31, former chief deputy sheriff of Neshoba county; Alton Wayne Roberts, 31, Hickory, Miss., mobile home salesman; Barnett, 31, Cullen, La., automotive parts salesman; Jimmy Arledge, 32, Meridian truck driver; Billy Wayne Posey, 32, Williamsville service station manager; and Jimmie Snowden, 36, Meridian truck driver.

Schwerner and Goodman, of New York City, and Chaney, of Meridian, disappeared while investigating the burning of a Negro church near Philadelphia, Miss. Their bodies were found buried in a dirt dam at a farm pond near Philadelphia 44 days later.

Bowers and Roberts were sentenced to 10 years, Price and Posey to six years and Arledge, Snowden and Barnett to three years each.

In other actions today, the court: —Turned down appeals by seven Mississippi Ku Klux Klan members sentenced to prison in the 1964 murder of three civil rights workers.

—Let stand a ruling that a 1939 law that forbids soliciting business for foreign dovecotes through the mail is unconstitutional.

Berlin Talk Proposed by 3 Nations

LONDON (AP) — The United States, Britain and France sent off notes to the Soviet Union today proposing a time and place for new Big Four talks to ease West Berlin's situation.

All four governments have agreed in principle to hold such a conference, and only the arrangements for it remain to be settled.

Diplomatic authorities gave no details of when, where and at what level the notes proposed that talks be held.

It is known, however, that the Western allies would like the talks to get under way within the next month or so and that they would not object to a meeting in West Berlin of deputy foreign ministers or ambassadors.

The allies think the talks should cover such issues as the air, land and water traffic to West Berlin, freer communications between East and West Berlin, and an easier flow of goods, traffic and ideas between the two parts of the city.

Informants said the Western powers do not plan to seek removal of the Berlin Wall at this stage, but that this is the sort of subject that could come up if there are signs of progress.

A military spokesman also reported that three Arab guerrillas were killed in an attempt to sabotage a settlement in upper Galilee, near the Lebanese border.

The guerrillas fled after guards spotted them, the spokesman added. He said an explosive charge that had been placed under one house was dismantled.

Hand grenade explosions today killed an Arab boy and wounded 33 other persons, including three Israeli soldiers in the occupied Gaza Strip, the less the special session is extended.

The New York law, which Douglas calls "nondiscriminatory freedom-of-choice" and antibusing legislation, has already been approved by five Southern states.

The bill says no person shall be refused admission to any public school in the state because of race, creed or color except with the expressed approval of an elected board of education. It also says no students shall be assigned or compelled to attend any school for the purpose of achieving racial balance. Douglas said this section would prohibit busing school children.

"Basically, I believe that we in Arkansas realize that the segregation issue is dead and that we must get on with the operation of the schools to educate our children," Douglas said.

"I feel like this (his bill) is an expression by the state to the nation that we intend to conform with the law, but that we don't want to destroy our public school system in the process," he said.

"Disruptive reorganization" would result from busing, Douglas said.

"I think you always have basic roots within your community," Douglas said. "The neighborhood school is of great importance to each of us."

Douglas also said he believed Rockefeller "is for integration at all costs."

"I think he fails to realize the value the common citizens bestow upon the small things of life, such as their schools and their community," Douglas said.

Rockefeller said last Saturday that he had not and was not recommending busing. He also said, however, that he supports the position of the Southern Governors' Conference, which urged "restraint and good judgment" in the use of busing.

A military spokesman also reported that three Arab guerrillas were killed in an attempt to sabotage a settlement in upper Galilee, near the Lebanese border.

The guerrillas fled after guards spotted them, the spokesman added. He said an explosive charge that had been placed under one house was dismantled.

demonstrator were injured. A police spokesman said there were "25 to 50 arrests."

It was the third consecutive night of turmoil centering near the campus of the University of California at Santa Barbara. But the demonstrator turnout in defiance of a curfew was only half as large as the previous night, when a Bank of America branch building was destroyed by fire.

In Buffalo, N.Y., rebellious youths invaded the administration building of the State University of New York, smashed windows and glass display cases, ripped phones from walls and set a small fire.

Fire bombs touched off minor blazes in three other buildings.

Earlier in the day several hundred students—out of an enrollment of 21,000—roamed the campus pelting buildings, police and windows with stones and chunks of ice and ramming campus police headquarters with two automobiles.

The disturbance followed charges of discrimination against black athletes which had led to the cancellation of two basketball games.

In South Hadley, Mass., a group of black students occupied seven buildings at Mount Holyoke College shortly after midnight today and took control of the school's telephone switchboard.

A sit-in by about 300 California State College students at Fullerton ended Thursday night when helmeted police swept through the Letters and Science Building.

The students left hastily but lingered outside for about an hour, smashing the building doors and throwing rocks and bottles. They said they were protesting the arrest last week of two students accused of disrupting a campus speech by Gov. Ronald Reagan.

The Santa Barbara suburb, Isla Vista, was comparatively quiet following Wednesday night's melee when 35 persons were arrested, and little additional vandalism was reported.

The youths milled aimlessly in the streets until the police, carrying plastic shields in one hand and night sticks in the other, charged in squads of 25 men.

Officials did not call for the assistance of the National Guard, offered by Reagan earlier in the day.

Reagan declared a state of extreme emergency and ordered the attorney general to investigate the leadership of the throngs that had rampaged through the community the previous two nights.

County supervisors ordered a 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew in Isla Vista and banned loudspeakers and assemblies of more than three persons in the streets.

Student leaders held news conferences during the day and attributed the disturbance to police harassment, high rent for students in Isla Vista, the war in Vietnam and general dissatisfaction with the "establishment" in all phases of campus and community life.

The school chancellor, Vernon I. Cheddie, replied that efforts were being made to allow students to participate in decisions on faculty hiring and curriculum.

sive action and are willing to "withstand the criticisms of the liberal community."

"Of equal importance," he said, "we can begin to lead American opinion."

"I am convinced that the overwhelming majority of Americans will follow the lead of their governors and other elected officials if we will just launch a campaign to exert the force of public opinion to drive these bizarre extremists from their pre-emptive positions on our television screens and on the front pages of our newspapers."

"Most of them need treatment more than publicity," Agnew said.

Agnew was the windup speaker at a two-day conference of the governors, who came to Washington to hear the administration report on its programs, and to talk with members of Congress about their own.

When Agnew completed his 20-minute address, the governors gave him a standing ovation, but in talking to reporters later not all the state executives agreed with the vice president's assessments.

Gov. Tom McCall, a Republican from Oregon, said he preferred a more low key approach in dealing with dissidents and demonstrators.

Cards, Hope Game Tonight a Key One

By RALPH HOUTON

There is nothing like winning, especially in the last games, and the Hope teams will be mentally prepared. Now we can sit back and watch it.

Johnny Kelley, G., 6-11, Sr.

Hope is 14-1 in the division before this regular game. While the Cardinals stand 2-4 and must look ahead to Camden Lincoln on tomorrow night. The three straight victories have put the Bobcats 12-12 overall, while the Cards stand at 17-9. To win, the Cats must contend with that strong Fairview defense that beat Hope 78-46 and 61-51 earlier. Hope has been successful underneath against the Redbirds with John Dudley and Larry Muldrew, but Larry is out with the groin injury. So the Bobcats need strong outside shooting from the likes of Charles Frazier, Parker Powell, and David Briggs, all of whom are around 10 points per game on the average for the last month.

That opener will see the Hope (B) Bruins stake their 11-4 record in the season finale against the Fairview junior varsity.

Coach Willie Tate's Bruins have really been rough without a loss in the last four weeks. Likely as starters should be sophs Bill Rowland (6-4), Tim White (6-3), Steve Harris (6-4), James Bradley (6-0) and 5-11 junior Roger Newton.

Already the Bruins' ranks have been depleted by additions to the Bobcat list, including sophomore Lynn Norton, Tommy

Ford Signs Self Out of Tournament

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer

MIAMI (AP)—Jack McGowan put his game on the shelf for a while, Dave Marr put his financial house in order and Doug Ford put himself out of business.

The veteran Ford, 22 years on the pro tour, signed his scorecard which had a 40 for the score on the ninth hole, was charged with that, and took a 116 total in the first round of the $150,000 Doral Open Golf Tournament.

"I don't remember writing in the 40," Ford said. "I just remember writing the 79 total and signing it."

The 40 was his total for the first nine holes. But the figure appeared in the blank for the ninth hole, and under the rules of golf, Ford was stuck with it when he signed the card.

A similar incident occurred in the 1968 Masters when Roberto de Vicenzo signed an incorrect card and was knocked out of a tie for first place in the Masters.

Marr, who hasn't won since he took the 1965 PGA Championship, and the veteran McGowan, meanwhile shared the first round lead with five-under-par 67s on the lake-lined, 7,028 yard blue course at the Doral Country Club.

Marr, a personable 36-year-old who has been in a slump for five years, said he had had "too many things on my mind. But now I have my program, my goals, better organized. Some nice things have happened to me and I have a little more confidence."

McGowan, a dour little veteran of 10 years on the tour whose only previous victory was almost seven years ago in something called the Mountain View Open, said a rest—"I just put my game on the shelf"—may account for his fine round.

They held a two-stroke lead over a half dozen others, headed by hard-hitting Dan Sikes going into today's second round. Sikes was tied at 69 with Charles Coody, Jim Colbert, Larry Hinson, Dave Stockton and Brian Barnes, a rookie pro and a member of Britain's Ryder Cup team.

British Open Champion Tony Jacklin was in another bunch of six at 70, with Arnold Palmer still very much in contention at 71. Julius Boros had an 80, PGA Champ Ray Floyd had a 75, Master title-holder George Archer had a 74 and U.S. Open Champion Orville Moody took a 73.

Ford, of course, had the toughest break of them all. He withdrew from the second round with the sponsor's permission.

Dudley Wyson, who scored for him, said, "He 40 isn't in my writing. He must have done it. But I must have left the score on the ninth hole blank."

McGrady Takes Aim on Own World Record

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Martin McGrady, sizzling with three consecutive world record performances, takes aim at his third straight 600-yard title tonight at the 82nd annual Amateur Athletic Union Indoor Championships.

The AAU track and field games return to Madison Square Garden after an absence of four years with 18-of-22 individual winners returning to defend titles.

McGrady, 23-year-old Washington, D.C., schoolteacher, won 500 yards in 1:17.50 last week and 400 yards in 1:08.5 last week. He lowered his 200-yard mark to 1:08.5 in the 200-yard race last week.

Maybe tonight McGrady, with a streak of 26 victories in 28 races, will make it four world shattering performances. Olympian 440-meter champion Lee Evans providing the competition.

"I think I'm faster than he is," McGrady says. "And he thinks he can beat me. We'll see."

The pair have met twice this year with McGrady winning both times. The second time, both shattered the world mark in the same time with McGrady edging Evans by inches.

Other men's defenders include Charlie Greene, 60-yard dash; Willie Davenport, 60-hurdles; Herb Germann, 1,000 yards; Henryk Szordykowski, mile; Dave Romansky, mile walk; John Rambo, high jump; Norm Tate, long jump and triple jump; George Woods, shot put; and Al Hall, weight throw.

Kansas State Makes It to Playoffs

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Wildcats from Manhattan did it.

That is to say the Kansas State Wildcats from Manhattan, Kan., today are in the NCAA post season championship tournament for the national collegiate basketball title. "I know not many people thought we could do it, but our kids thought we could," said Cotton Fitzsimmons, the K-State coach. "The credit goes to them. They stuck together all season."

Fitzsimmons' comment came after his kids had beaten Colorado 79-69 at Manhattan Thursday night, thereby clinching the Big Eight Conference crown and the automatic NCAA berth that goes with it.

Jerry Venable paced the Wildcats with 31 points, 13 of them coming in the last six minutes after Cliff Meely, Colorado star, fouled out with 5 1/2 minutes left. At the time K-State led by only one point 60-59.

Kansas State, which won only 14 of 26 games last season, now has a 19-5 overall mark and are 17th in The Associated Press Poll. They have a 10-2 mark in the Big Eight and lead Kansas by three games with two left.

Kansas State drew a first-round bye in the NCAA. The Wildcats' first game in the NCAA will be in the Midwest Regional at Lawrence, Kan., March 12 against the winner of the New Mexico State-SWC tilt at Fort Worth, Tex., March 7.

Down at Atlanta the nationally sixth-ranked Jacksonville Dolphins whipped Georgia Tech 86-81 in a battle between NCAA and NIT-bound teams.

The Dolphins, in the NCAA, won their ninth straight and upped their season record to 22-1 by coming from behind to beat the NIT-bound Engineers.

Air-bound by 7-foot-2 Artis Gilmore with about seven minutes left put Jacksonville ahead for good at 67-66. Rich Yunkus of Tech was the game's high scorer with 36 points. Gilmore got 27 for the Dolphins.

The favored Davidson Wildcats, No. 11 in the AP Top Twenty, had little trouble whipping Virginia Military 72-46 in the first round of Southern Conference Championship Tournament at Charlotte.

Two free throws by Picot Frazier with 23 seconds left gave Richmond an upset 75-73 victory over East Carolina, and Mike Tallent's two free throws in the last five seconds accounted for George Washington's 66-61 triumph over The Citadel.

William and Mary beat Furman 82-67 in the other first-round game.

Davidson meets William and Mary and Richmond takes on George Washington in the four-team semifinals tonight.

First place again changed hands in the Western Athletic Conference scramble. Texas, El Paso, beat Brigham Young 81-70 and took over the top rung from Utah. The Redskins were beaten by New Mexico 93-74.

Many Still Holding Out in Baseball

BY DICK COUCH
Associated Press Writer

Ron Swoboda and the New York Mets are closer together today . . . and perhaps farther apart, too.

Swoboda arrived at the world champs' spring training base in St. Petersburg, Fla., Thursday with a signed contract in his pocket and a frown on his face. He was the last Met to report . . . and apparently the least satisfied of New York's World Series heroes.

"I'm bitter," said the strapping outfielder, who had held out briefly for a $50,000 contract but settled for about $40,000. "I am not happy with the money. I am ashamed to look my wife in the face. I feel I let my family down. I compromised myself too much. I've been sick for days."

"I feel he was treated fairly," countered Bob Scheffing, the Mets' new general manager. "If he wasn't satisfied, why did he sign?"

"I just didn't want to upset what the team has here," explained Swoboda, who batted just .235 last season but contributed heavily to the Mets' September pennant drive and then sparked, at bat and in the field, in their Series triumph over Baltimore.

While Swoboda ruefully accepted a $6,000 pay hike from the Mets, St. Louis signed speedster Lou Brock, whose .298 batting averaged paced the club last season, for a reported $90,000 . . . about $5,000 above his 1969 figure. That left two Cardinals . . . slugger Richie Allen and southpaw pitcher Steve Carlton . . . unsigned.

Carlton, a 17-game winner whose 19 strikeouts against the Mets in a late-season game bothered the major league record, said he has come down from an original demand of double his $25,000 salary last year but the Cardinals "won't budge."

Allen reportedly wants $140,000 for his first season with St. Louis, which acquired him in the multi-player deal that sent Curt Flood and Tim Lincecum to Philadelphia. "He'll be here," Brock assured. "He's got a history of holding out, but he wants to play baseball."

Reggie Jackson, the Oakland Athletics' sensational young slugger, admitted he and club owner Charles O'Falley still were "very far apart" in salary negotiations.

Bobby Murcer, Horace Clarke and Jerry Kenney still were missing as the New York Yankees worked out at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and five Los Angeles players, including pitcher Don Sutton and Bill Singer, were absentees from the Dodgers' Vero Beach, Fla., camp.

Outfielder Bob Tolson, one of seven unsigned Cincinnati standouts, turned down the Reds' latest offer and the Atlanta Braves had not heard from first baseman Orlando Cepeda.

All become official holdouts if they don't report by Sunday, March 1.

Bobby Bonds, San Francisco's young outfield star, arrived at the Giants' Casa Grande, Ariz., base; Ron Santo was among four new arrivals at the Chicago Cubs' drilled at Scottsdale, Ariz., and shortstop Leo Cardenas checked into the Minnesota Twins' camp at Orlando, Fla.

Washington's Frank Howard, hitting for a two-year, $275,000 pact, was expected to make an appearance shortly at Tampa Bay, Fla., where the Red Sox were camped.

Colonels Are Fast Losing Their Lead

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — On Jan. 15 the Kentucky Colonels were in the best shape in their three-year American Basketball Association history—12 games above .500 and pressing Indiana for the Eastern Division lead.

Since then, the Colonels have dropped 13 of 17 games, the most recent a 113-109 loss Thursday night to Pittsburgh.

The defeat also left Kentucky only 2 1/2 games in front of fast-closing Carolina in the division race, with Indiana out in front by 1 1/2 games.

Kentucky stayed with Pittsburgh for most of the game but never could gain the upper hand, despite 19 second-half points by Louie Randle, who led both teams with 27.

But, working with his plans, he estimates the car could be duplicated for $1,500. That's compared to conventional "D" racers that can cost in excess of $5,000.

Repairs can be made with a saw, glue and quick trip to the lumber store.

Two Arkansans in Running

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Richard Crawford of Bella Vista shot a par 72 Thursday in the first round of the $150,000 Doral Open golf tournament.

Quachita Wins Over Reddies After 7 Losses

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — Quachita, after seven straight losses to Henderson, broke the Reddies' hex here Thursday night with a 71-69 victory in the finals of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference playoff.

Tom Jones supplied the margin of victory when he took a pass and fired in a basket from about 35 feet as time ran out.

Quachita, on the basis of the victory, will be top-seeded next week at Pine Bluff in the NAIA District 17 playoff. Henderson, Arkansas Tech and Arkansas AM&N will round out the field.

Henderson defeated Quachita twice during the regular season, but Thursday night the Reddies were without the services of 6-foot-0 Danny Davis. Davis has been the Reddies' leading scorer and rebounder the past three years.

Thursday night's game was 41-41 at the half, but Quachita gained a 51-44 early lead in the second half. Henderson, however, rallied to tie the game.

Richard Hargadine gave Quachita a 67-65 lead with three minutes remaining, but Chesley Boggan's basket tied it with 47 seconds left.

Don English put Henderson ahead 69-67 with 31 seconds remaining and Jones tied it 17 seconds later. Henderson drew an offensive foul and lost possession of the ball. Seconds later, Jones swished.

Hargadine led Quachita with 20 points and Boggan had 21 for Henderson.

In a hole at Vero Beach and will be scheduled for two or three days. Pitchers Mel Stottlemyre and Bill Burbach of the Yanks also were out of commission temporarily after suffering reactions from their mandatory flu shots.

Howard Co. Five in B Semifinals

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Howard County will meet Stephens Carver and Greenbrier will play Mammoth Spring tonight at Little Rock in the semifinals of the Class B state senior boys basketball tournament.

The first semifinal game is set for 7 p.m. and the second for 8:30 p.m. The finals are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Saturday.

In quarterfinal action Thursday, Howard County whipped Paragould Oak Grove 78-48, Stephens Carver clipped Fountain Lake 80-66, Mammoth Spring defeated Weiner 67-52 and Greenbrier slipped past Marmaduke 63-55.

Howard County trailed by two points at the half, but outscored Paragould Oak Grove 23-6 in the third period. Freddie Dixon paced the winners with 33 points and Charles Marshall added 18. Kendall Hurt led Oak Grove with 25 points.

Larry Banks and Ralph Porchia combined for 52 points in Carver's victory. Banks had 27 and Porchia 25. Dwight Ford paced Fountain Lake with 32 points.

Mammoth Spring led Weiner by six points at the half, but the Bears' advantage was reduced to 40-37 entering the final period. Three baskets by Joe Couch put Mammoth Spring comfortably ahead early in the fourth period.

Couch led all scorers with 22 points. Ronald Myer and Kenny Montgomery added 15 each. Bob Furrner led the losers with 16 points.

Greenbrier jumped off to a 31-18 halftime lead, but Marmaduke cut the lead to five points with a minute left. However, two free throws by Steve Coney tied the victory for Greenbrier.

Jerry Roberts paced Greenbrier with 19 points. Coney and Robert Tyus had 14 each for the winners. Darrell Johnson led Marmaduke with 33 points.

Solunar Tables

The schedule of Solunar Periods, as printed below, has been taken from Richard Alden Knight's SOLUNAR TABLES. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

Feb. 27	Friday	9:35	3:25	10:05	3:50

SMALL AIRSHIPS AT MOORING? No, they're 30,000-gallon storage tanks for vinyl chloride monomer at PPO's Lake Charles, La., complex. American industry consumed about three billion pounds of the material last year, primarily for use in polyvinyl chloride, an ingredient for many consumer and industrial plastic products.

Good Night for Ex-New York Hockey Players

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
It was a good night for ex-New York players around the National Hockey League but not particularly enjoyable for the current Rangers.
New York absorbed a 5-3 whipping in Boston Thursday as the pursuing Bruins closed to within two points of the Rangers in the East Division standings.
Most of the damage was done by scrappy John McKenzie, an ex-Ranger.
In Pittsburgh, three other ex-Rangers combined on the play that led to the only goal of the game as goalie Al Smith blanked Los Angeles 1-0.
In the only other NHL game, Chicago edged Philadelphia 3-2 and Detroit walloped Oakland 7-1.
McKenzie set up three Bruins goals—two of them by Fred Stanfield—as Boston jumped into a quick lead and never let the Rangers out from under.
McKenzie fed Phil Esposito for the game's opening goal at 4:18 of the first period and then set up Stanfield twice as the Bruins blistered Ranger goalie Ed Giacomin with 41 shots. Ed Westall and Garnet Bailey scored Boston's other goals while Arnie Brown, Dave Balon and Bob Nevin connected for New York.
Smith turned in his first NHL shutout for the Penguins with Ken Schinkel's 18th goal of the year providing him with all the offense he needed against Los Angeles.
Dean Prentice and Bryan Hextall, Jr., like Schinkel, both ex-Rangers—assisted on the goal. It was the 400th assist of Prentice's NHL career.
Smith kicked out 30 shots and the victory moved the Penguins into second place in the West, two points ahead of Philadelphia, which bowed to Chicago.
The Black Hawks stayed in fourth place in the East, one point ahead of Detroit, beating the Flyers behind Gerry Desjardins, who was making his first start in goal for them.
Desjardins, acquired in a six-player trade with Los Angeles last Friday, stopped 35 shots and the Hawks got a pair of goals from Bobby Hull for the victory. Hull, who sat out the first month of the season, increased his goal total to 31.
Detroit remained right behind the Hawks by ripping Oakland. The Red Wings bunched five goals in the first period—three of them by Billy Dea, Dale Rolfe and Frank Mahovlich inside of 85 seconds—to take command.
Gordie Howe scored his 21st goal of the season while killing a penalty and Garry Unger hit for his 33rd while Nick Libett added a pair for the Wings. Billy Hicke's first goal in 21 games averted the shutout for Oakland.

Mexico, Russia Play to Tie

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Mexico and the Soviet Union played to a 0-0 tie Thursday night in an exhibition soccer match before a crowd of about 85,000 at Aztec Stadium.
Phoenix Suns Outshoot the Pistons
DETROIT (AP) — The Phoenix Suns outshot the Detroit Pistons, 24-9, during a six-minute flurry in the second period, on their way to a 131-123 National Basketball Association victory Thursday night.
In winning, the Suns stretched their hold on the fourth and final playoff position in the Western Division to a game and a half over the Seattle.
It was the only game scheduled in the NBA Thursday.
In the only American Basketball Association action Thursday, Pittsburgh knocked off Kentucky 113-106.
Phoenix's Connie Hawkins drilled in ten points during the second period uprisings which lifted the Suns from a 51-42 deficit to a 66-60 halftime lead.
Dave Bing propelled a Piston comeback late in the fourth period to bring Detroit within two points of the Suns.
Hawkins tossed in 33 points for the winners, while Bing sank 32 for Detroit.
The Suns are locked in a four-team battle for the last playoff spot in the NBA's Western Division.

Film Is Pure Heaven for Texas Fans

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The camera fades out on a sign scrawled on a wall. It says: "It's an orange world."
Indeed, the Texas-Notre Dame Cotton Bowl Classic highlight film is enough to stir the blood of any football fan. But if you're a Longhorn, well, it's pure heaven.
And even though you know the final score will be Texas 21-17—the 29½ minute color film wraps the drama in a dynamite package to give you goose bumps to the end.
The narration is by Lindsey Nelson; the script by Bill Morgan; and the film work by Bob Friedman.
"I believe it's the best Cotton Bowl film we've ever had," says Wilbur Evans, executive director of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association.
Evans should know. He's cranked out a number of them. The camera graphically captures the vicious line play and blocking. It's a shame some of the linemen couldn't have been wired for sound.
Morgan edited 14,000 feet of film down to about 1,400 feet. There is excellent use of the sideline cameras. In fact, a camera man almost gets a back-full of cleats on one of Ted Koy's runs.
Texas fullback Steve Workler is every-inch an All-American as he splatters Notre Dame tacklers. Of course, in slow-motion it's awesome as the Cotton Bowl's most valuable back carries as many as six Fighting Irish tacklers on his thunderous runs.

Notre Dame's Bob Olsen is caught in the spotlight as he blasts Texas runners. He was the most valuable defensive player, allright.
The camera zeroes in on the almost ballet-like precision of the Texas offensive machines—Darrell Royal's Wishbone-T. Unflappable James Street is shown making the correct split second decision time and again—then taking murderous lumps for his trouble just

Opening lead - ♠ 3

There is a mighty easy way for you readers to make the four-spade contract. Just look at the East and West hands and you can finesse against East's queen of trumps. There is also an easy way to go down if you are playing the hand. You play out the two top spades and wind up losing a trump and three clubs. This is the best percentage trump play if you haven't seen the East-West cards, but it is not the way to play the hand.

A winning player will plan to force his opponents to take the trump finesse for him.

He wins the heart lead, plays a diamond to the ace, ruffs a diamond in dummy, cashes the other high heart, ruffs a heart, ruffs his last diamond and leads out dummy's last heart.

Should East hold four hearts instead of West. South would discard a club but, since West holds the four hearts, South ruffs and plays a low club from his hand. There is method in this play. As long as South can play the clubs so as to make it impossible for East to win the third club lead and have a fourth club to lead, South is sure of his contract.

As it is, West will win the third club and lead the fourth one. South will be down to the ace-jack-10 of trumps, while dummy will be holding the king-eight of trumps and a club, and South will be sure of the last three tricks.

The play is foolproof as long as West holds four hearts and the diamonds go around three times.

In case East happens to hold the four hearts, South would then be forced to play the spades himself, but he would have been in the same position as if he had started trumps early.

... She came from God the Father to accomplish good for all; to persuade people to a better way of life. Her steeple is high, her influence reaches far. Men know she holds comfort for believers and direction for those lost in sin. She is where a lot of people go as a last resort. Oh, that all men might first, come by way of His church for renewed hope, divine courage and greater strength. Over nineteen hundred years ago, God opened her doors to all men regardless of race, color or creed. He raised the cross, on which Jesus died, atop her steeple with a prayer that men might never commit blasphemy against His name. — Then, "come let us go into the house of the Lord." Here, it is always time to worship the God I serve... for I am His church.

Compromise on Teacher Tenure Issue State Churches Are Trying to Help Poor

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer

Advocates and opponents of tenure for Arkansas classroom teachers have reached a compromise that would afford teachers some protection against unfair dismissal.

The proposal, dubbed a "fair" employment and dismissal practice" bill, was included by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller in his call for the special legislative session that begins Monday.

The bill was drafted by Sen. Bob W. Douglas of Texarkana, a foe of teacher tenure bills in the 1967 and 1969 regular sessions.

The measure has been endorsed by the Arkansas Education Association, an advocate of tenure, and the Arkansas School Board Association, an opponent.

Under the 1967 and 1969 tenure measures, teachers could not be dismissed after serving three years unless they were found guilty of immorality, failure to obey rules or incompetence.

Under Douglas' bill, a teacher may only be dismissed at any time for any reason.

But the teacher could request a statement of charges against him or the reason for his dismissal and would be entitled to a public hearing.

The bill sets the procedures for holding the hearing.

"The bill does not preclude the teacher from taking a school board to court if he feels he has been improperly treated," Douglas said in an interview Wednesday.

Under current law, all that is required of a school board is that it notify a teacher of his dismissal by registered mail 10 days prior to the expiration of his contract.

The teacher can appeal to the courts.

Douglas, who is a member of the Texarkana School Board and is immediate past president of the state School Board Association, said school boards felt tenure was unprofessional.

Obtaining tenure might discourage teachers from continuing to try to improve their professional performance, he said.

"You have teachers who are satisfied merely with obtaining their teachers' certificates and not advancing themselves by getting further training," the senator said. "That leads to nonprofessionalism. A person who is a professional would want to improve himself."

"We want someone who will continue to train himself by inservice training, workshops and additional college credit hours to keep abreast of the needs of education. This would provide the school system with the best qualified teachers," he said.

Another provision of the bill would give the state Education Department the authority to revoke the certificate of a teacher who breaks a contract.

PASSENGERS BOARD moving cars from a slowly moving platform in a new "Carveyor" mass transportation system. Designed to relieve traffic and pedestrian congestion in cities and airport terminals, the all-weather system could handle 22,000 persons an hour. Two cities are already interested in it, according to its developer.

King Ranch Filly Carries Extra Pounds

By ED SCHULTZ JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer
King Ranch's Gallant Bloom, the 3-year-old filly champion of 1969, is set to carry the most added burden of 125 pounds Saturday when she will try to make the Santa Margarita Handicap, the 1 1/2-mile, $100,000-added race.

In carrying the highest weight she's ever been assigned, Gallant Bloom is expected to be opposed by eight fillies and mares in the 1 1/2-mile, $100,000-added race at Santa Anita.

The Santa Margarita is one of three six-figure races on Saturday's national program. The others are the $100,000-added Hialeah Turf Cup at Hialeah and the $100,000-added John B. Campbell Handicap at Bowie, Md. Gallant Bloom also will be the site of an important $100,000-added race for 3-year-olds next Tuesday—the 1 1/2-mile Flamingo, a major stepping stone to the Kentucky Derby.

Gallant Bloom won her 1970 debut carrying 125 pounds to a nose victory over Hat Ranch's Commissary in the 1 1/2-mile Santa Maria Handicap in a stakes record 1:42 2-5.

Rex C. Ellsworth's Tipping Time and Commissary, 117 each, are expected to give Gallant Bloom her stiffest competition. Tipping Time scored a narrow victory over Commissary in the Hollywood Oaks last July.

Emanuel Mittman's Vent du Nord, winner of two straight stakes, and Rokeby Stable's Fort Marcy, looking for his first victory of the year, head a probable field of 11 for the 1 1/2-mile Hialeah Turf Cup. Vent du Nord won the Bougainville Handicap on the grass in which Fort Marcy finished fourth.

A field of 16 is expected for the 1 1/2-mile John B. Campbell, and if more are entered, the field will be split into two $50,000-added divisions.

Mrs. Henry Obro's North Flight gets tops weight of 120 pounds for the Campbell on the dirt although most of his wins have come on the grass.

Others expected to start include Buck Ridge Stable's Crack Ruler, winner of the Verter at Bowie and two stakes at Liberty Bell Park; Meadow Stable's Hydrologist, winner of the Campbell Prep, and John A. Hersberger's Juvenile John, the 1969 Campbell winner. Each will carry 117 pounds.

Baffle is assigned high weight of 122 pounds for the 1 1/2-mile, $25,000-added San Francisco Mile at Golden Gate Fields, and Cabildo and Elony each get 120 for the 1 1/2-mile, $25,000-added Letellier Memorial Handicap at the New Orleans Fair Grounds.

WILLIAM BAILEY

Editor of the Star: It has been so long ago and the dead are silent. But somewhere in Arkansas, perhaps in Hempstead county, there is a family burial plot containing the last remains of farmer William Bailey (or Baile) George. He was born before 1810 and he probably lived on into the 1870's. If he can be traced it may well solve one of the most famous mysteries in American history.

As early as May 1865 there were dark hints in certain newspapers that the man shot in the burning bar was not John Wilkes Booth, assassin of President Lincoln. Here was a myth in the making. The myth got a big boost on the morning of January 13, 1903, when a drifter known as David E. George took poison and died in a dingy hotel room in Enid, Oklahoma Territory. A minister's wife said that he had once told her that he was John Wilkes Booth. Poor old George was very dead and in no position to deny it. Anyway, the story got wide coverage in the press. Since then books have been written on Booth's alleged escape and suicide and articles by the hundreds have hashed it over again and again. But nobody really knows who the Enid suicide was. The body went unclaimed.

Portions of a tattered old letter recently discovered in Enid—the city where George died—appear to resolve the question of identity. The writer stated that he was in fact David E. George, her father's half-brother and the son of "grandfather William Bailey George, of Arkansas." She could not say where in Arkansas her grandfather had lived—only that her own father had visited him around 1870 or so. She knew little about her grandfather as there had been a family breakup around 1840 and her own father had been raised by a family named White. Apparently her grandfather came from Alabama originally, lived for a time in Mississippi, and then moved over to Arkansas before the Civil War. And there the trail ends, ends cold. All efforts to locate the William Bailey George family in Arkansas have come to nothing.

Off and on in more recent times there have been a few Georges in Hempstead County and perhaps were kin to William Bailey George. So this is a plea for help. Can any person within the reach of this newspaper shed light on this mystery? Where did William Bailey George live? Are there descendants? Call if fact or guess, if you have information about this family please write to James O. Hall, 1044 Douglass Drive, McLean, Virginia 22101. Maybe, just maybe, we can lay an old ghost.

week I glanced out the window and asked her what she thought the weather would be like tomorrow. You know what she said? She said, "I don't know about tomorrow, sir, but right now we are at an altitude of 300 feet, the temperature at Chicago is 35 degrees with visibility unlimited, and we should get there 10 minutes ahead of our scheduled arrival time."

"Anything else?"
"Yes. When I get home from work, all tired out, she goes through a routine that really gives me the creeps. As soon as I sink down on the sofa, she comes out of the kitchen pushing a trundle cart with two Martinis and a packet of Hawaiian macadamia nuts on it.

"Then she comes back carrying a pillow, the afternoon newspaper and a selection of five magazines.

"Then every five minutes after she comes by again, fluffs my pillow, and says, 'Isn't that more comfy, sir? If there is anything else I can do, please let me know.'"

"You lucky stiff. Most husbands I know would think they were in heaven if they got that kind of treatment."

Freighter, Barge Collide and Spill Oil

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)

— A barge-freighter collision sent a bank-to-bank oil slick rolling down the St. Johns River today toward the Atlantic Ocean and Jacksonville area beaches. The black mass, spilled into the river Thursday night when a freighter plowed into an oil-filled barge, coated both shores of the St. Johns for about 10 miles.

A Coast Guard spokesman said the sludge moved about two miles per hour on an outgoing tide toward the mouth of the river and the ocean beaches.

Coast Guard officials said the freighter Merc Buccaneer, inbound from the Bahamas, slammed into the barge Eastpet with tears in her eyes and when I asked her why she said, "I guess as a bride I'm a flunkout. The last three months I was flying I won a company bonus every month for being extra nice to people, but since I married you, you haven't given me a single one."

"How did you solve that one?"
"I gave her a bonus. What else could I do?"

1 seven miles east of Jacksonville ripping a three-foot gash below the water line. No injuries were reported.

J. W. Connolly, president of Eastern Seaboard Petroleum Co., said his workmen estimated the total spillage at 7,000 gallons. The ruptured tank held 30,000 gallons, he said.

Earlier this month, a 21,000-gallon spill in Tampa Bay formed a 100-square-mile slick which killed thousands of birds and blackened bay shores.

Officials said booms were brought in hoping to contain the St. Johns spill but the equipment was never used. "It was really too dark out there to see anything," said the Coast Guard spokesman.

All traffic on the busy river—entrance to the Port of Jacksonville—was halted, but it was expected to be opened today.

"It's going to be messy, but it shouldn't present a hazard to shipping," the spokesman said. Officials said oil gushed freely from the barge for about an hour after the crash.

A second barge was brought alongside and fuel was pumped out to lighten the stricken craft's load and bring the gash above the waterline.

The Coast Guard said the fouled river banks were mostly industrial or uninhabited areas.

STUTTGART MAN Shows Champ at Houston

HOUSTON (AP) — Circle H Ranch of Stuttgart, Ark., showed the grand champion Brangus bull Wednesday in what was described as the largest show for that cattle breed ever held in this country.

The judging took place in the opening day of the Houston Livestock show.

Bruce Church Ranch of Yuma, Ariz., exhibited the reserve champion Brangus bull in the placing of about 200 of the black animals, which evolved from crossing Angus and Brahman breeds.

The champion red polled bull was an entry from McMarshall Farms of Washburn, Ill., and Oakview Acres of McLeansboro, Ill., had the reserve champion bull.

In the sheep division, Ronald Wedel and son of Moundridge, Kan., showed the champion Southdown ram and the reserve champion ewe.

Funeral service for Mrs. Louise Thompson who passed away February 25, 1970, will be held Saturday, February 28th, at 11:00 a.m. at the St. Paul C.M.E. Church, Washington, Arkansas. Burial in Washington Cemetery under the direction of Hicks Funeral Home, Inc.

Wilkerson Signs With Oilers

HOUSTON (AP) — Doug Wilkerson, a first-round choice in the National Football League draft, signed a contract Thursday with the Houston Oilers.

Wilkerson, 22, is a 6-foot-3 184-pound lineman from North Carolina Central.

Calif. Guards Called to Halt Rioting Youths

By DON HARRISON
Associated Press Writer
SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — Holding plastic shields to ward off rocks and bottles, about 150 policemen swept through the debris-strewn streets of a suburban college community Thursday night where some 500 youths were milling about in defiance of a curfew.

About a half dozen young persons were arrested, including one girl. A sheriff's spokesman said a boy was hit by a squad car and taken to a hospital with undetermined injuries. Despite a 6 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew, the youngsters lit bonfires in trash bins and pelted police cars and officers with rocks and bottles. It was the third straight night of disorders. Rioting early Thursday left a bank burned to the ground, other fire damage and broken windows.

Late Thursday police patrolled the one-square-mile community of Isla Vista, but retreated to a parking lot at the nearby University of California at Santa Barbara. At 9:30 p.m. they began the sweep, charging down streets in squads of 25 men. Youngsters yelled obscenities, threw objects and scattered.

Police threw tear gas into clusters of youths. Earlier Gov. Ronald Reagan had declared a state of extreme emergency in the area. The county supervisors had ordered the curfew.

Convicted of Rape, Negro Given Death

FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — James Edward Scott, 20, of Forrest City was sentenced Thursday to die in the electric chair May 22 for the first-degree rape of a 15-year-old white girl.

Scott, a Negro, was convicted of the crime Tuesday after a St. Francis County Circuit Court jury deliberated 10 minutes.

Judge Elmo Taylor of Searcy sentenced Scott.

E. V. Trimble of Little Rock, Scott's attorney, said he would appeal. Two other Negro youths were sentenced in November to life in the same case.

In another case, Johnny N. Harper, 17, of Memphis was sentenced to seven years for the robbery last August of William Epps, 63, at a Forrest City grocery store.

New Husband Has to Detrain His Wife Who Was Airline Stewardess

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — A friend of mine recently married a former airline stewardess. Meeting him on a bus the other day, I asked him how the marriage was working out.

"Not bad," he replied. "But things should be much better when I finish detrain her."

"What does that mean?" "It means I've got a problem in making her forget her old airplane routines and getting her to treat me more like a husband and less like a passenger."

"Tell me more."

"Well, no matter how grumpy I get, she never quits smiling. That keeps the customer-happy smile can get pretty unnerving. And about every other morning when I come to the breakfast table she forgets we're married and asks me whether I want coffee, tea or milk."

Burglars Hit Three Places

City Police are investigating three breakins here last night. Apparently the burglars found nothing of value at the Jumbo Burger Center driven on West Third Street and at Yerger Junior High School Office.

The Dairy Queen on East Third wasn't so fortunate. An undetermined amount of money was taken but investigating Officers Milam and Sinyard said it might go as high as $300.

Pickets Meet Pompidou in San Francisco

By JIM GERSTENZANG
Associated Press Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — French President Georges Pompidou, met by orderly picketing on his arrival Thursday night, embarked today on a busy schedule featuring a visit with local Jewish leaders who oppose his country's sale of Mirage jets to Libya.

A crowd of 600, by police estimate, met Pompidou with a mixture of boos and applause as he was whisked from a limousine into the St. Francis Hotel, where he and his wife are staying in a $350-a-day suite.

Barricades kept demonstrators across the street from the hotel's main entrance facing Union Square. Helmeted police ringed the hotel.

Pompidou's plane arrived an hour late from Cape Kennedy, Fla., where he made a whirlwind tour of the spaceport. A San Francisco rally protesting his visit already had subsided.

The only incident at the rally was the arrest of a man reported to be carrying a concealed knife.

Mayor Joseph Alioto presented the president the key to the city and Mrs. Pompidou was given a bouquet of long-stemmed red roses.

The French president's meeting with 15 local Jewish spokesmen was scheduled for late afternoon. They planned to give him a petition circulated at the hotel rally. It criticizes France for sending planes to an Arab nation while withholding arms that Israel already had paid for.

Before the meeting, Pompidou's schedule called for a visit at the hotel with Gov. and Mrs. Ronald Reagan, an address on the problems of youth at the Commonwealth Club, a visit to Stanford University's Linear Accelerator Center and a sight-seeing tour.

More than 1,000 guests were invited for a reception at 6:15 p.m. at the Palace of the Legion of Honor, to be followed by a private dinner in Pompidou's suite.

He is scheduled to leave for Chicago at 10 a.m. Saturday, and will leave Sunday for New York, where he is to visit the United Nations Monday. His party leaves for Paris on Tuesday.

Pompidou had a two-hour meeting Thursday at the White House with President Nixon, who said later, "I believe we have made very great progress in restoring that kind of relationship between our nations which should be between two friends and allies."

"The major part of the strike or lockout could continue," he said, "but danger to health or safety could be minimized by keeping essential segments of the industry in operation or by maintaining service for the most critical group of service users."

As the third option, the President could give each of the parties three days to submit either one or two final offers to the secretary of labor, followed by five days for negotiations. If talks failed, a three-member panel of "selectors" would study the final offers and choose one of them, declaring it to be the final and binding settlement.

Lid Clamped on the Government's Role in School Desegregation

By JOHN ECKLER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A lid has been clamped, at least temporarily, on a potentially explosive congressional fight over the federal government's role in school desegregation.

By a narrow 6-7 margin, the House Rules Committee has sidetracked an attempt by critics of the present federal desegregation effort to open the subject to exhaustive inquiry.

But before it got the lid back on Thursday, the committee brought to light a deep and bitter division in the House that imperils any education legislation in the near future.

The split is centered in the Education and Labor Committee, where Oregon Rep. Edith Green, the panel's second ranking Democrat, has long been at odds with most of her fellow Democrats.

It was her resolution calling for the creation of a special committee to conduct the investigation on which the rules committee had to act.

Once the darling of the education lobby, Mrs. Green has grown increasingly critical of government education programs and now finds most of her support among Republicans and Southern Democrats.

Tired of being outvoted in her own committee, she sought to have a new one created that would be more responsive to her views.

Most of the Democrats on the Education and Labor Committee appeared before the Rules Committee to oppose her resolution on the grounds it was unnecessary or would create jurisdictional problems.

Legislature to Get Bill on Busing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Apparently, the upcoming special session of the legislature will have to take a stand on an antibusing proposal.

Sen. Bob W. Douglas of Arkansas said Thursday in an interview that he would propose such legislation if Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller does not include it in his formal call for a special session.

Robert Faulkner, Rockefeller's executive secretary, said the administration has no plans at this time to include an antibusing proposal in the call. The governor can add items to the call until the legislature convenes at noon Monday.

Douglas said he had prepared a resolution that would extend the session after work on Rockefeller's call is completed so that the legislators could consider an antibusing proposal identical to one adopted by New York.

A two-thirds majority vote by each house is required to extend the session and noncall items cannot be considered unduly.

Agnew Asks Governors to Help Get Misfits Off TV, Front Pages

By WALTER R. MEARS
AP Political Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has called on the nation's governors to join in a fight to drive kooks, misfits and bizarre extremists from the nation's front pages and television screens.

In a speech Thursday to the National Governors' Conference, the vice president said "It is time for the political, business and academic leaders of this country to lead a figurative march back to normalcy."

Declaring that "the threat of violent revolution" is a "clear and present danger," Agnew said the greatest threat to the nation is "not the war in Vietnam, nor inflation, nor the environment... it is: Will the government of this country remain in the hands of its elected officials or will it descend to the streets?"

Agnew said his concern at the current American condition was not grounded in "fear of the kooks or demagogues themselves, but in their current respectability."

"Never in our history have we paid so much attention to so many odd characters," he said. "Twenty-five years ago, the tragicomic antics of such societal misfits would have brought the establishment running after them with butterfly nets rather than television cameras."

"It is in this inordinate attention to the bizarre, this preoccupation with the dramatic, this rationalization of the ridiculous, that we threaten the progress of our nation," Agnew said.

He said elected leaders can assert firm governmental authority—if they will take decisions.

Swiss Ruling Opens Bank Files to U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — An attempt to have a special home committee formed has been narrowly defeated, temporarily stopping a potentially explosive congressional fight over the government's role in school desegregation. The committee would have been charged with a thorough investigation of this role.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The labor department has released monthly wholesale price figures, and the Commerce department its monthly index of leading indicators, both supplying fresh evidence that inflation is abating. Meanwhile, President Nixon has asked Congress to trim or abolish 57 government programs in budget cuts necessary to bring the deficit down to $19.4 billion education and surplus.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew has called on the nation's governors to help drive kooks, misfits and bizarre extremists from the nation's front pages and television screens. He called the question of keeping the government in the hands of elected officials rather than in the streets the greatest threat to the nation today.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate is opening debate on a $19.4 billion education and health appropriations bill that raises the questions of slowing school desegregation and permitting the president to curb voted spending. The measure, which is under a veto threat, replaces a measure vetoed last month by President Nixon.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic Party has been left without a major candidate for the soon-to-be-open post of national chairman after Lawrence F. O'Brien's refusal to accept the post.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A collision between a freighter and an oil-carrying barge has released an estimated 7,000 gallons of oil into the St. Johns River, entrance to the port of Jacksonville.

Disturbances continued for a third consecutive night in Santa Barbara Thursday and early today as students protest alleged police harassment, the Vietnam war and other issues, and the area was placed under a curfew. Student demonstrations also developed at other campuses across the country.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird says U.S. bombing strikes in Laos are to protect the American position in Vietnam, a statement that apparently varies from President Nixon's last statement on the bombing, when he said it was to protect the Laotian government.

Senior Girl Scouts from Texarkana, Hope, Ashdown, Smaackover, Magnolia, Waldo, Arkadelphia, Hughes Springs and Linden met at Ouachita Baptist University for conference. Attending from Hope were Anita McCauley, Mary Young and Peggy Lehman. Girl Scouting in Hope is supported by the Hempstead County United Fund.

Group to Plan Big Melon Competition

The agriculture committee of the Hope-Hempstead County Chamber of Commerce, headed by T.O. Porter, has scheduled a meeting for Tuesday March 3, at the Chamber of Commerce office at 7 p.m.

Mr. Porter is asking that all growers interested in competing for prizes in the "Big Watermelon Contest" in 1970 be in attendance if at all possible. He stated that the agriculture committee and the growers need to discuss any possible changes in the rules for 1970 and to get all interested growers signed up early.

Prizes awarded by the Chamber of Commerce this year will be at least $550, with $300 going to the producer of the largest melon, $150 to the second largest melon and $100 to the third largest melon. No one grower can win more than one prize.

Shelling Is Stepped Up by Enemy

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today announced the largest number of enemy shelling attacks in almost a month and the loss of three aircraft.

Allied communiques reported 16 American and five South Vietnamese troops killed and 29 Americans and 10 Vietnamese wounded. Allied forces reported killing 44 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong soldiers.

Although ground fighting was generally light and scattered, the U.S. Command reported 35 enemy rocket and mortar attacks from 8 a.m. Thursday to 8 a.m. today, the largest number in a 24-hour period since Feb. 3.

Headquarters said two of the attacks caused casualties or damage at American bases, a 10-rocket barrage on the Army's Long Binh headquarters 12 miles northeast of Saigon and a 25-m mortar barrage into a 25th Division camp 59 miles northwest of Saigon. But six Americans were killed, the largest number of U.S. troops killed in shelling attacks since Dec. 2, and another 23 were wounded.

Another nine Americans were killed when a Navy UH34 helicopter exploded in the air and crashed Thursday in the Mekong Delta 88 miles southwest of Saigon. There were no survivors.

All Around Town

By The Star Staff
It's a sad day when the deeds of some reflect on the entire school system, the community and its people. Earlier this week the Texarkana Razorbacks came to Hope for a basketball game. During the contest thieves, vandals or whatever you want to call them, entered the visitors dressing room, tossed clothing outside in the mud and took a pair of contact lenses, gold cuff links, three watches, two class rings, a billfold, a sweater, a T-shirt and $11.70 in cash. Anyway you figure it this City owes it to the visitors to see that everything is returned or reimbursed in some way. And this is in addition to an outright apology from the School and City. Even then such an act cannot be erased. The incident makes every law-abiding sports fan and citizen of Hope sick at their stomachs.

Millwood reports shows the pool elevation at 259.44 with water murky and rising and a discharge of 5,000 cubic feet per second. There were 48,400 visitors during the month of January. Fishing is good for bass on minnows and artificial bait in the Saline and at the Spillway. Harrell Henderson of Ashdown, caught a 9 pound bass on a crappie jig at the spillway.
